

Seating Trouble

I _____ liked the place I sat
_____ Juan and Bill and Nate.
We _____ talked and _____ a lot,
and it was _____ great.
My _____ said we _____ too much and _____ us to be still.
We didn't _____ very well,
so one day, she _____ Bill.
We _____ our best to do our work and to _____.
Then came the _____ airplane _____ .
That _____ , she moved Nate.
Juan and I were good as _____ until one _____ day.
Who _____ have _____ a book could fly?
She _____ my desk away.
Here I sit, _____ up front,
and now from 8 to 2,
I only pay _____
for there's _____ else to do.

Name _____ Date _____ # _____

Please answer the following questions in complete sentences.

1. Explain what the poem is about. Do not just restate the title.

2. Identify three verbs from the poem.

3. Identify three two-syllable words from the poem.

4. What does the word fleet mean in this poem?

5. If you could change the seating in your classroom, how would you change it?
