Elf 1: Think about it.

Elf 2: It's almost shocking!

Elf 3: He won't even have

Elf 4: A Christmas stocking.

Elf 5: Is it too late

Elf 6: For us to plan

Elf 7: To celebrate

Elf 8: With that cheerful man?

Mrs. Claus: No, let's quickly think of some presents we can make!

Elf 5: Let's make him new gloves

Elf 6: And a hat right away

Elf 7: So the cold won't get him

Elf 8: When he's out on his sleigh.

Mrs. Claus: How about some special refreshments?

Elf 1: We'll mix up a tasty brew.

Elf 2: Can you make his favorite stew?

Mrs. Claus: Yes, of course! It's 5:00 A.M. I wonder how much time we have?

Elf 3: We'll have to hurry

Elf 4: To get things done.

Elf 8: The computer shows

Elf 7: He's on his last run.

Elf 6: Look out the window

Elf 5: Aren't those his sleigh tracks

Elf 4: And there in the corner

Elf 1: His big empty sacks?

Elf 2: I hear him.

Elf 3: He's going into the bedroom.

Elves and Mrs. Claus:
Let's turn out the lights and hide!

(Time passes and things are very quiet.)

Mrs. Claus: I'd better go see what happened to him. I don't hear anything.

Well, little elves,
You won't have to hide.
Santa's too tired
After his ride.

Narrator: The party food
Will have to keep.
Dear old Santa
Is fast asleep.

(Loud snoring is heard off-stage.)
