The Boxcar Children

Ch. 9 - 10

Using Quotation Marks

Use quotation marks " " around a direct quote, the words a person is saying. The quotation begins with a capital letter. The quotation is separated from who said it with a comma, unless the quotation is a question or an exclamation.

Add quotation marks and correct punctuation to the following sentences.

1. good morning Henry said Mrs. Moore can you work today
2. eat all you want said Mrs. Moore
3. i can smell something good cried Benny
4. he ran so fast you could hardly see his legs at all laughed the boy
5. do you want to run in the race a man asked Henry
6. oh, I dont think I'll win answered Henry But it's fun to run
7. i am going to win this race Henry said to himself
8. the people shouted he is going to win
9. then a man asked what is your name boy
10. what are you going to do with the money asked Dr. Moore
